“User” means a person using Choise’s Services.

3. Initial and ongoing screening

- Choise will (and will always reserve a right to) screen a User before enabling any Transaction with such User and will continue to screen such User on an ongoing basis, to ensure that such User is not a Sanctioned Person, from a Sanctioned Jurisdiction and/or a person from a Prohibited Jurisdiction (through third parties, including Crypterium AS).
- Choise will screen a User before providing any Service to such User and will continue to screen such User on an ongoing basis, to ensure that such User is not a Sanctioned Person, from a Sanctioned Jurisdiction and/or a person from a Prohibited Jurisdiction. If a User is a Sanctioned Person, from a Sanctioned Jurisdiction and/or a person from a Prohibited Jurisdiction, Choise will refuse to provide Services to such User or discontinue the provision of Services.

In carrying out this screening Choise shall ensure to adopt software to enable comprehensive screening to be carried out and which captures all sanctions that Choise is bound to follow.

4. KYC/AML identification procedures

Choise adopts a risk-based approach to combating money laundering and terrorist financing. By adopting a risk-based approach, Choise can ensure that measures to prevent or mitigate money laundering and terrorist financing are commensurate to the identified risks.

Before enabling or entering into a Transaction with or for or on behalf of a User or providing any Service to a User, Choise will, if so required by applicable law or if it is otherwise deemed necessary or expedient:

- a) identify the User and verify the User's identity based on documents, data, or other information based on a reliable and independent source (through third parties, including Crypterium AS);
- b) If there is a Beneficial Owner concerning the User, identify the beneficial owner and take reasonable measures to verify the beneficial owner's identity;
- c) obtain information on the purpose and intended nature of the business relationship with the User, unless the purpose and intended nature are stipulated in the relevant documentation between Choise and the User. As part of this process, Choise shall obtain, amongst other matters, information on the source of funds and source of wealth of the User; and
- d) if a person purports to act on behalf of the User, (i) identify the person and take reasonable measures to verify the person's identity based on documents, data or information based on a reliable and independent source; and (ii) verify the person's authority to act on behalf of the User.

To identify a User who is an individual, Choise will collect information from the User, including but not limited to, his full name, date of birth, place of birth, nationality, place of residence, email address, and the identity document type. Choise will verify the identity of the User with documents such as his national ID, passport, and/or driver's license and utility bill (through third parties, including Crypterium AS).

To identify a User who is a legal entity, Choise will collect information from the User, including but not limited to, its full legal name, registration number, date of incorporation/registration, country of incorporation/registration, and lists of directors (as applicable to the entity). Choise will verify the User with documents such as Memorandum and Articles of Association (or equivalent), additional beneficial ownership information and documents, and a detailed corporate chart (as applicable to the entity).

If the User is not physically present for identification purposes, Choise may adopt more stringent standards to verify the identity of the User.

Documents in languages other than English must be translated into English; the translation must be notarized and sent along with a copy of the original document with a clear photograph.

For additional verification, We duly perform User verification using the following method - Skype, Zoom conference calls, or other types of communication regarding the «Face to Face» procedure of verification.

5. Ongoing monitoring of Users

Choise reserves the right to continuously monitor, on a risk-sensitive basis, the business relationship with a User (as applicable) by:

- a) reviewing from time to time documents, data, and information that have been obtained by Choise to ensure that such documents, data, and information are up to date (through third parties, including Crypterium AS);
- b) conducting appropriate scrutiny of Transactions and activities carried out by Users to ensure that they are consistent with Choise's knowledge of the User's business and risk profile, and to ensure that such Transactions and activities are in line with Choise's knowledge of the User's or User's source of funds and source of wealth; and
- c) identifying transactions that are unusually large in amount or of an unusual pattern and have no apparent economic or lawful purpose.

For the avoidance of doubt, Choise may undertake ongoing monitoring of Users to ensure that any Transactions equal to or above € 500 (or its equivalent in any other currency) shall be subject to enhanced due diligence concerning the source of funds and source of wealth of the User.

To continuously monitor the business relationship with a User (as applicable), Choise may carry out a file review to ensure that information held about the User is up-to-date and that identification documents held are still valid. In addition, on a more frequent basis, Choise may also monitor transactional activity to identify any red flags or 'out of the norm' activity.

As part of the second line of defense, the Money Laundering Reporting Officer will carry out checks to ensure that regular and effective ongoing monitoring is being effected and that irregular or suspicious activities are effectively escalated.

AML online check services that are based on the AML Global Watchlist (global AML risk data sources including sanction lists (such as OFAC, UN, HMT, EU, DFAT, and many more), law enforcement lists (Interpol, country-specific government and state agencies, and police forces), and international governing regulatory bodies (financial and securities commissions).

6. Sanctioned Jurisdictions, Prohibited Jurisdictions, and High-Risk Jurisdictions

Choise will establish and maintain the following lists of jurisdictions (i) Sanctioned Jurisdictions (ii) Prohibited Jurisdictions and (iii) High-Risk Jurisdictions. In determining the list of Sanctioned Jurisdictions, Prohibited Jurisdictions, and High-Risk Jurisdictions, Choise shall take into account the lists issued by the Financial Action Task Force and by other organizations issuing guidelines and lists relating to the adequacy of legislative measures adopted by jurisdictions concerning money laundering, funding of terrorism and transparency.

Users who are (i) residents or domiciled in, or (ii) have their source of wealth or source of funds linked to a Sanctioned Jurisdiction and/or a Prohibited Jurisdiction shall not be accepted as clients of Choise.

Users who are (i) residents or domiciled in, or (ii) have their source of wealth or source of funds linked to High-Risk Jurisdictions shall be subject to additional checks and measures by Choise.

7. High risk situations

In certain circumstances, the risk may be higher and Choise will need to take additional checks. These include, for example, situations where the User is from a High-Risk Jurisdiction, where the User is a Politically Exposed Person, or where the User's or User's behavior and activities raise other red flags.

In a high-risk situation, Choise will:

- a) where a business relationship has not yet been established, obtain approval from senior management to establish the business relationship and take reasonable measures to verify the User's or beneficial owner's source of wealth and source of funds that will be involved in the business relationship; and
- b) where a business relationship has been established, obtain approval from senior management to continue the business relationship, take reasonable measures to verify the beneficial owner's identity, and take reasonable measures to verify the User's or beneficial owner's source of wealth and source of funds that will be involved in the business relationship.

8. Record-keeping

Choise will keep (a) transaction records, for ten (10) years beginning on the date on which a transaction is completed, or for such other minimal period as may be required by applicable law; and (b) other information collected by Choise for AML/KYC purposes, throughout the continuance of the business relationship with the User and for ten (10) years beginning on the date on which the business relationship with the User ends, or for such other minimal period as may be required by applicable law.

9. Money Laundering Reporting Officer

The Money Laundering Reporting Officer shall be the person, duly authorized by Choise, whose duty is to ensure the effective implementation and enforcement of the AML/KYC Policy. It is the Money Laundering Reporting Officer's responsibility to supervise all aspects of Choise's anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing. Once such an officer is appointed, all our employees will report any suspicious behavior or activities to the Money Laundering Reporting Officer.

10. Reporting

Where Choise suspects that a User is involved in any money laundering, terrorist financing, or other illegal activities, it will report any relevant knowledge or suspicion to governmental and regulatory authorities. Choise shall not notify any Users of any such suspicious transaction report. Rather, if Choise and its employees notify such Users, they may be held liable for tipping off. This is a criminal offense punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment.
